Saints All-Inclusive Spring Dinner/Dance

On a beautiful "tropical" evening of Sat. 19 April, 2008, 300+ invited guests were welcomed by the St. Stanislaus College Alumni Association Toronto at the West Rouge Centre for an evening of pure delight.

With lots of dance floor to "do their thing", guests danced all night to the sweet, soft pulsating rhythms of our masterful DJ Jones (Lolan Jones: 416-615-0274), enjoyed a super buffet dinner by Olga's Catering (Paula Braithwaite: 416-493-5744), and drank freely (at no further cost) of Carib Beer, Angostura Rum, Margarita Ice, etc. All for just $40. This went on until after 1 a.m. The young man managing the hall was very cooperative in extending our welcome, to our guests' delight.

A table full of raffle prizes was on display as guests entered the hall. Exclusiff Spices graciously donated two hampers of their renowned products, now available in major supermarkets, for the raffle. Angostura Rum, Carib Beer, and Margarita Ice also generously contributed an additional 2 baskets with their world class products.

Phil Starz and Freida Jardin taught us SAINTS boys how to execute a successful raffle. They told us guys to "stay out of it"! Tickets were "pushed" all night long by these determined sales ladies (smile). The unbelievable result was that, with just over 300 guests, these super sales ladies showed us "how it was done", raising $779.00. What a job! Anyone trying to "steal" these super sales ladies from us will have to pay a "finder's fee" (smile).

Don't miss the next SAINTS West Rouge Fete on Sat. 4 October, 2008: all inclusive liquor, wine, beer, pop, and water with a Curry and Roti snack. This will also be a "SOLD OUT" event. Call your SAINTS contact! Order your tickets now!

Saints Inaugural Walk-In-The-Park

The Toronto Saints Alumni Association held its first annual 5km. Walk-In-The-Park on Sunday 25 May, 2008. Organizers were blessed with a warm sunny spring day, ideal for the walkers who participated.

Upon registration and submission of their pledge sheets, each walker was assigned a number tag emblazoned with lettering to identify them as SAINTS Walk-In-The-Park participants, and given a free T-shirt. As sustenance for their walk, walkers were also given fruit and water. The walk was followed by a free hot dog BBQ for all participants as well as volunteers.

Participants in the SAINTS Walk-In-The-Park consisted of many alumni, including some walking groups with family members. Some walkers even brought their dogs along for the walk. Most walkers indicated their appreciation of the opportunity to participate in the event and many promised to return next year. Although the event was not as well attended as had been expected, it turned out to be profitable, adding much needed funds to the Association's coffers.

Weiner Chef

In planning the event, members of the Walk-In-The-Park Committee worked diligently with staff of the City of Toronto Parks, Forestry & Recreation departments to select the route and obtain the necessary permit. In addition, staff of the City of Toronto Public Health Department was involved in an advisory capacity regarding the serving of food for the occasion. The majority of the Association's executive were also involved in canvassing for walkers and sponsors for donations and gifts.

Volunteers are also an essential element in ensuring the success of any such event, and the efforts of all of our volunteers are indeed appreciated. Special thanks go out to the lady volunteers, Anne Castanheiro and Loretta Wong, whose assistance at the registration of participants was invaluable.

Special thanks are also extended to the Riwoche Tibetan Buddhist Temple who donated a beautiful Singing Bowl as a prize, and acknowledgement to two of its members, Calvin Kelly and Luke Poortinga who served on our Walk-In-The-Park Committee, and for their generous and knowledgeable help in planning and organizing the walk.

We hope that the knowledge and experience gained from putting on the initial walk will ensure that future SAINTS Walk-In-The-Park events will be more successful in terms of both participation and profitability. Such events have the potential to produce substantial financial benefits for the Association, thereby adding considerably towards the support of our Alma Mater.

Thanks once again to all those who showed up to make the walk a most enjoyable, memorable, and rewarding day. We are happy to report that, thanks to your support and the generous pledges of sponsors, the premier 5km. SAINTS Walk-In-The-Park raised over $2,000.00. We hope to see you all around the same time next year at which time we anticipate signing up many new walkers interested in participating in the 2009 SAINTS Walk-In-The-Park.

VSO UPDATE

I am pleased to report that our first volunteer, Michael Annamunthodo, has returned from Guyana after spending one month providing training in the use of computers and Information Technology not only to the teachers of St. Stanislaus College but also to teachers from several other surrounding Secondary Schools.

Prior to going to Guyana, Michael spent a significant amount of time in communicating with members of the Board of Governors and members of the staff of the college so as to prepare his lectures on topics that would be relevant to the curriculum to be taught. He arrived in Guyana well prepared to start his training immediately. Not only were the teachers able to benefit from his expertise but also he encouraged several of the Administrative Staff and Students to utilize his knowledge for their betterment. Since returning, Michael has continued to communicate with the staff and students in assisting the IT department to set up its own website. Michael's wish is for significant success at the CXC and CAPE examinations for the Saints students who are presently taking the IT courses.

On behalf of the Executive and members of the St. Stanislaus College Alumni Association Toronto, the Board of Governors, the staff and students of the College, I would like to express our heartfelt thanks to Michael on a job well done. I would like to thank also his wife and family for their support especially at a time when the situation in Guyana was somewhat chaotic. At our monthly meeting, there was unanimous approval to confer honorary membership in our Association to Michael Annamunthodo.

The following communication was received recently from Stephon Dookhan of the IT staff at the college.

"IT exams here at saints went well. We have sent up the largest batch of IT students in the school's history. 61 did the technical proficiency, and about 24 did the general proficiency. As one of the IT teachers here, I am very excited to see the results. Also, this being my Old school and having done IT for CXC in 2000, it is very exciting to send up some of these students to write the subject".

Towards the end of April, we selected Amanda Dindayal as our second volunteer to spend six weeks in Guyana doing a feasibility study on setting up a School of Continuing Education for Adults at the College. It is our hope that a significant source of revenue could be generated from Continuing Education to allow the Board of Governors to fund the serious financial shortfall faced by the Board in the running of the school.

Amanda is Canadian born of Guyanese parents. She is a Commerce graduate from the University of Toronto, and is a chartered accountant and consultant with Deloitte & Touche LLP. This is Amanda's first visit to Guyana. We wish her well and hope she will have a very enjoyable time as she visits the country of her parents' birth. We look forward to a positive report from Amanda on her return.

Our relationship with VSO Canada continues to be very positive. Over the last few

New St. Stanislaus E-mail System

Most Alumni Associations try to keep in touch with former students with the expressed intention of soliciting for donations. I once checked out a University site in Britain, saw that they were trying to get in touch with me, responded (since I knew I didn't owe them money) but, instead of getting back in touch with some long lost friend, have regularly been appealed to for donations ever since.

The challenge that our Toronto chapter faces, with our limited means and small number of volunteers, is not only to raise money for the College through the wide variety of events that we sponsor but also to ensure that we keep in touch with our membership and with the school on a regular basis. A web-site alone is a rather impersonal way of contacting even local members to let them know of upcoming activities, and telephone calls are time-consuming. Modern technology offers a simpler solution of mass e-mailing, but not everyone necessarily wants his/her private e-mail address to be known in this day and age when these addresses are sold to spammers for profit.

Having explained the problem to John Sparrock, an alumnus resident in the US, I was very surprised to realise that he had come up with not only a solution to the immediate problem of keeping in touch with our membership but also one which introduced features that opened up new avenues for communicating with the teaching staff at Saints and for electronically delivering information that may assist in the teaching program. Furthermore, the same system could be used by the Executive and membership of the different chapters as well as the Board of Governors (BOG), enabling these diverse groups to contact each other, if they so desire, in an effective manner.

The solution involves setting up a universal e-mail addressing system that is different from personal addresses. These addresses are to be used only for Saints-specific communications, including the distribution of our newsletters. Although they eventually may become exposed and vulnerable to abuse, the risk is reduced significantly by basing the solution on one of the leading e-mail sys-

The approach chosen is to use Google Apps which uses gmail (along with all the Google spam filters), allows us to have a consistent address (which is @st-stanislaus-gy.com), and allows us to set up virtually unlimited e-mail addresses. So, even if at some point a private e-mail address is changed, it will still be possible to keep in touch with members. The complete rationale is given at <http://st-stanislaus-gy.com/ssc-mail/>

Further investigation of the system has shown other advantages. With the download of Google Talk, there is increased opportunity for instant messaging and for transferring large files.

The newly announced Google site, <http://sites.google.com/overview.html>, provides for easy website construction, which should prove invaluable for IT students and for all teachers who may now be encouraged to place their lesson plans, homework assignments, etc., on their personal web site.

At present, over 200 e-mail accounts have been created from our existing alumni list. These include the Executives of all Alumni Associations, all members of the BOG, and all known Saints staff. Initial feedback has been very encouraging, and we believe that we have discovered a potentially effective way to bridge the digital divide.

If we currently contact you through your personal e-mail address and you have not yet been provided with your new Saints e-mail address, please contact John Sparrock (jsparrock@st-stanislaus-gy.com) to receive your new e-mail address and your initial password. After you have been set up, you should use your new e-mail address for only Saints communications and your current personal one for all other mail. Just remember that you will now have to check two e-mail addresses for mail, one exclusively for Saints communications and the other for all other mail.

months, we were sorry to learn that our first contact, Don Sucalit, was leaving VSO Canada. Don was instrumental in setting up the relationship between our organisations and was most helpful in assisting us in learning about the volunteer process. Our sincere thanks to Don for his help and guidance. We are pleased to welcome Theo Breedon who has taken over from Don. We look forward to working with Theo in a mutually beneficial relationship.

The Passing of Alumni

Dennis Vieira, alumnus and brother of alumni (the late) Claude and Vibert, passed away on 30 May, 2008, in Pickering (the Greater Toronto Area).

We extend our sympathy to the families of these alumni, and ask that you remember them, and those they have lost, in your prayers.

Remembering Yesteryear....

Troubadours Steel Band

It was the early 50's; my dad had died in 1950; I was already up to Grade 8 in music and couldn't sit the LRSM exam until I was 21 years of age. At the time, I was somewhere between 15 and 17 years old. I thought of forming a steel band with other musicians whom I knew and who were equally good on piano or violin. Here I was thinking that we would have the best 'pan' side in town as we all knew music. This would make 'playing pan' an easy transition...just hand out music sheets, and voila. Unfortunately, this was not to be. When I introduced each of them to 'pan', none of them could relate their musical expertise of piano or violin to 'pan', and could not transfer their talents to 'pan' playing. I was crushed with disappointment.

With my dad's passing, my mum could not really afford the cost of music lessons anymore, and I was just waiting to be eligible to sit the LRSM exam, so I told her I would study 'pan' instead. She accepted the idea, as I would still be doing music as far as she was concerned.

So, off to the Brute Force 'pan'-yard I went. The yard was opposite Radio Demerara, where I met the band-leader, Patsy. (Funny, today I am married to a lady whose name is Patsy. We have been married for 37 years and have 3 children, Rhonda, Glen, and Kelly.) I learnt how pans were made, how to tune them, and picked up 'pan'-playing relatively easily.

The first friend I spoke to was Leslie Fernandes. We were inseparable then, and he loved the idea. I bought a first 'pan' (melody pan) and a second 'pan' (accompaniment or guitar pan), and started teaching Leslie at 44 Brickdam where I lived with my mum and younger sister, Desiree (Ree). The first tune we played together was "Pretend you're happy when you're blue", sung by Nat King Cole, which was very popular at the time.

Then, the idea of having a 'road side' band struck me....it would be the first college-boy band ever to tramp on the road.

We got permission from Mr. John Fernandes ("Honest John") to use the John Fernandes wharf for practice, as we would have to practise not only playing the pan but also walking with the pans around our necks. We needed the space, not to mention the noise we would be making...the wharf was ideal.

Some of the names I remember...forgive me if there are any names that I forgot to include :

On bass : Vic Albertson, Tony Cox, "Konky" De Freitas, Roy De Freitas ("Honey Bear"), Peter Fernandes, Clive Fisher, Joseph Anthony Perreira ("Reds"), Compton Rod-

rigues ("water wings"..."flour god"). I think this completes the bass section.

Tune base : Harold Gonsalves ("Rook"), and myself (I also doubled on first pan).

2nd. pan : Harold De Souza (kb), Alan Gonsalves, Woody Gonsalves, Romeo Mahanger, Maurice Serrao, Raymond Perreira, "Prehistoric" (Pre, sorry I could never remember your proper name). There were also others in this section.

1st. pan : Gayman Gomes, Dereck Gonsalves, Bing Serrao, and at least 4 others also in this section. Forgive me, guys, we are talking 50 years ago.

There was a Gerry Gouveia, not the "Dude" but the one who lived in Kitty with 2 other brothers. I remember him posing with an army helmet, not playing but posing as an MP for the band and really hustling all the chicks. Yes, we had a superb following of chicks, all beautiful and, when the rains came, they looked even more exceptional when wet.

The first tune the Troubadours played on the road was "Chopsticks" which was made popular at the time by Liberace who played it in a movie.

Vic Gonsalves, Florida

Vic was still a student at Saints when he formed his band. He had both a small band for "house" parties and an enlarged band for street marches in the Christmas season. I attended both types of events as did many other Saints students who were joined enthusiastically by the girls from Charlestown High School (St. Joseph's) and Ursuline Convent (St. Rose's). Those were the days when one could take evening strolls along Camp or Main Streets right up to the Sea-Wall without worries of being robbed or attacked!

Letters to the Association

Mr. Godfrey Whyte
Secty. - Alumni Association

Dear Godfrey,

I must tell you that I appreciate receiving the "Saints News & Views". It keeps me in touch, and I congratulate you and your committee on the good work you do.

The tributes to Clement Yhap by Vibert Lampkin and David Morrison brought back fond memories. He taught me Physics and Geography, and I echo their sentiments.

In the interests of antiquity, I am enclosing a rather grubby memento of the 5th Annual Dinner of the College Association, held on 12th Nov., 1947. I found it when cleaning out some old papers in a file drawer. As I recall, students in the 6th Form were invited to the dinner in those days, and I attended that year and the next. I don't know whether it will be of any use, but the names of the attendees are of interest. You may use it as you wish.

All the best.

John Vincent

Dollard-des-Ormeaux, Quebec

(Editor's note : John Vincent's "grubby memento" is a priceless piece of the history of the Old Boys Association. We are indebted to him for sharing this with us, and giving us this opportunity to pass it on to our readers. See below for picture of the menu signed by attendees at the 1947 5th Annual Dinner of the College Association.

The Last Lap Lime

The Last Lap Lime is an annual event held jointly by five non-profit Guyanese Alumni Associations resident in Toronto, Ontario. It is the largest congregation of Guyanese outside Guyana.

This social event ensures that Guyanese culture remains vibrant in the diaspora by celebrating what it means to be Guyanese through entertainment, food, drink and 'liming'. The event provides a taste of Guyanese culture to the children, grandchildren and friends of Guyanese living in the diaspora.

Join us for a fun filled day of entertainment, laughter, and good cheer.
